Community legal clinics

Community legal clinics provide information, advice, and representation on various legal issues, including social assistance, housing, refugee and immigration law, employment law, human rights, workers' compensation, and the Canada Pension Plan. Some legal clinics do not handle all of these issues, but staff may be able to refer you to someone who can help.

Community legal clinics are staffed by lawyers, community legal workers, and sometimes law students. Each legal clinic is run by a volunteer board of directors with members from the community. All help is private and confidential and provided free of charge.

To qualify for community legal clinic services:

- your legal issue must be one the clinic handles,
- you must live in the area the clinic serves, and
- your income and assets cannot be above a certain level.

To find out if you qualify, contact your local legal clinic. Most legal clinics provide brief advice, or "summary advice", without asking about your financial situation. Some legal clinics also offer workshops, information sessions, and other community development activities.

Most legal clinics serve a large area around their location and many clinics offer satellite services in neighbouring towns.

Specialty legal clinics

Ontario also has a number of specialty legal clinics. Specialty legal clinics serve a particular community or focus on a specific area of law. Most specialty legal clinics are not limited to serving a particular geographic area.

How to find a community or specialty legal clinic

In this directory you will find contact information for community and specialty legal clinics in Ontario. To find the legal clinic that serves your area, go to the Legal Aid Ontario (LAO) website at www.legalaid.on.ca. Click on "Contact LAO" then "Community legal clinics". Or you can phone LAO at one of the numbers listed on page 3.

Legal Aid Ontario (LAO)

LAO provides legal assistance for low-income people.

Services include:

- legal representation for eligible clients who appear in court without a lawyer,
- legal aid applications and information over the phone,
- legal resources and referrals to other social assistance agencies, and
- a certificate program for complex and serious cases.

If LAO cannot help, they will refer you somewhere that can.

To get legal aid services, your legal issue must be one that LAO covers, and you must be financially eligible.

Lawyer Referral Service

The Lawyer Referral Service provides names of lawyers who can help you or who accept legal aid certificates.

They can refer you to a lawyer in your area for a free half-hour consultation. Call toll-free 1-800-268-8326 or 416-947-3330 in the Toronto area.

If you speak French, in many cases you have the right to government services and legal proceedings in French, including hearings before French-speaking decision-makers. If you have a legal problem, you can ask a lawyer or a community legal clinic about your French language rights.

Si vous parlez français, il existe de nombreuses situations où vous avez droit à des services gouvernementaux et à des procédures juridiques en français. Ainsi, vous pouvez avoir droit à ce qu'une audience à laquelle vous êtes partie soit tenue devant un décideur qui parle français. Si vous avez un problème juridique, vous pouvez demander à un avocat ou à un intervenant d'une clinique juridique communautaire de vous informer des droits linguistiques liés au fait de parler français.

Toronto and Area
