AFTER KAWARTHA-HALIBURTON CAS. v. MW:
EVIDENCE ON SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTIONS

Chair: Justice Brian Weagant

Speaker: Professor D.A. Rollie Thompson Q.C.
Professor of Law, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University

Where: 311 Jarvis Street

When: Monday, June 3rd, 2019

From: 4:45 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The recent Ontario Court of Appeal decision of Kawartha-Haliburton Children's Aid Society v. M.W. (18 April 2019) has established important new guidelines for summary judgment motions in child protection cases. It is mandatory reading for all family law and child protection counsel.

Back by popular demand, leading family and child protection law expert Professor Rollie Thompson will address evidence in summary judgment motions in light of this important decision, including a refresher on hearsay and trial worthy evidence. There may even be a test in the form of "short snapper" problems. Attendance will ensure a passing grade and an entertaining evening.

Materials will be provided electronically.

LawPro approval for Risk Management Credits has been approved. This program has also been accredited for 15 minutes of professionalism hours and one hour and 15 minutes of substantive hours by the Law Society.

A video download, DVD, and materials of this session will be available at www.research.legalaid.on.ca/login.html
You will need your LAO solicitor number to log on to the LAO LAW website.

Refreshments will be served. Sponsors: Family Lawyers Association / 311 Operations Committee
Cost of Admission: $25.00.
