As counsel, what do you do when immigration issues arise in the context of family and child protection cases? This program has the answers! Our panel of experts will discuss key developments in the intersection of family, immigration and refugee law, in particular, the intersection of immigration and refugee law with both Hague and non-Hague cases and child protection cases. Recent appellate and first instance decisions will be addressed. Materials and resources for counsel will also be provided.

This program has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism by the Law Society of Ontario. It contains 15 minutes of Professionalism Hours and 75 minutes of substantive CLE. It has also been approved for a Risk Management Credit by LawPRO.

This is a continuing education program NOT open to the public. You must register in advance through the FLA at: familylawassociation@gmail.com. You will be sent a link and password to join the program. Deadline for registration is Feb.24, 2021.
