

Lawyers and Court Workers Welcome

311 Open Bar Series

Presents

THE TRANS COMPETENT LAWYER: A Discussion from the Perspective of the Bench and Bar

Chair: Justice Carolyn Jones, Ontario Court of Justice

Speakers: Judge Kael MacKenzie, Manitoba Provincial Court
Professor Samuel Singer, Faculty of Law,
University of Ottawa
Dalia Tourki, Advocate and Educator, B.C.L/J.D. candidate, McGill University

Where: Online through ZOOM

When: Monday, May 3, 2021

From: 4:45 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

As lawyers and judges, we may struggle to understand issues of gender identity. Please join our panel of experts for an important discussion of this subject, including the respectful language of gender identity, to help us to better serve our clients and litigants. Do not miss this learning opportunity!

This program has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism and Equity, Diversity and Inclusion credits by the Law Society of Ontario. It contains 1 hour and 30 Minutes (1.5) EDI Professionalism hours. This program has also been approved for a Risk Management Credit by LawPRO.

This is a continuing education program NOT open to the public. You must register in advance through the FLA at: familylawassociation@gmail.com
You will be sent a link and password to join the program. Deadline for registration is April 30, 2021.