

THE 47 SHEPPARD EDUCATION COMMITTEE, in co-operation with the Family Lawyers Association and Legal Aid Ontario, presents:

TOP 10 ETHICAL ISSUES FOR FAMILY LAW LAWYERS

Our panel will provide you with practical tips about how to handle common ethical issues that arise in family law scenarios. Learn how to manage and avoid these in your family law and child welfare law practice. Our panel includes counsel with family law and child welfare practices, and counsel who work in the areas of liability and negligence defence work, and professional development and competence.

- How to handle errors, omissions, and lies
- Conflicts of interest
- Unbundled services
- Getting off record/not coming on record formally
- Lack of professionalism
- Lawyers and personal undertakings
- Dealing with dabblers
- What to do when your client makes child protection issues public/use of social media
- Managing timelines
- Communicating with the self-rep opposing party/ aggressive opposing counsel
