

SHOW ME THE MONEY

Learn effective and practical tips about what financial disclosure you should be trying to obtain in cases involving child or spousal support, how to get that disclosure, what to do with the disclosure once you have it, and how to use Divorcemate software to present your case to your advantage. This program will also include a discussion of financial aspects of Children's Aid Society cases. This program will include topics such as:

- A refresher on using Divorcemate effectively in child and spousal support cases
- Cases involving one or both parents collecting government assistance, including important changes to the law coming in 2017 that you need to know
- Imputing income
- Section 7 expenses
- Ethical and client management issues in providing financial disclosure
- Financial issues in CFSA cases
- Materials will include tipsheets and useful precedents

Chair: Justice Roselyn Zisman, Ontario Court of Justice

Speakers: Michael Perlman, Divorcemate Software
Lisa Johnson, Family Lawyer
Gilead Kay, Family Lawyer
Glenda Perry, Family Lawyer
Haley Gaber-Katz, Family Lawyer
Colleen Charbonneau, City of Toronto

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Upper Canada. This program contains 0.5 Professionalism Hours

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2016

4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. (program starts at 5:00 p.m. sharp)

$20.00 cash only please (includes refreshments and pizza)

NORTH YORK MEMORIAL COMMUNITY HALL – 5110 Yonge Street
West end of Lower Level – one level below the North York Public Library

This continuing education program is NOT open to the public. Lawyers, Law Students and Court Workers are welcome. This program, it will be available on video download and on DVD, with materials in electronic form, from the LAOLAW website at "Learning Opportunities" at www.research.legalaid.on.ca/login.html

Next program: Tuesday, November 15, 2016 – Top 10 Ethical Issues